

Competition Rules – Please Read Carefully

1. All piping, drumming and pipe band events are governed by the competition rules of the B.C. Pipers Association.
2. Beginner (chanter or drum pad) grade is limited to players who have less than 12 months in grade and never competed on the pipes or side drum.
3. Time of play will be posted at the main piping tent. Any competitor not ready when their position in the order of play arrives may be disqualified from the event.
4. Competition will begin at 9:00 am
5. Competitors must give the name of the tune to the judge before playing.
6. All competitors are required to be attired in acceptable and recognizable Highland Dress.
7. Bands unprepared to play 5 minutes after the finish of the previous band set may be subject to disqualification as determined by the Chief Steward.
8. All Bands must submit a roster of competing players only plus their tunes for their entry. Place your entry ASAP - Performance Fees may be capped depending on numbers.
9. No late entries will be accepted and no refunds will be given (All entries must be postmarked by May 7, 2010).

Competitor numbers will not be sent by mail but can be picked up at the piping and drumming tent on Games day upon presentation of identification.
